Local Men Remember The Longest Day

Duy at Normandy.

Captain Miller was regimental adjutant who ropped with the 82nd Airborn Division into France efore daylight and helped capture the first French own to fall to the allies, St. Mere-Egilies.

Spooner was a tank commander who landed on musha Easy Red Beech at H.16. The infantry was checined to land at 8 am. but Spooner and his four males, including Farr, who was his cirver, were given to task of clearing beach obstacles 15 minutes earlier. Four hours later, Farr was deed and Spooner was ying on the beach with two broken legs, walting for rangoortation back to England and a hospital.

Today, Spooner is a prospecous Balle Glade farmer, howe son is named after Farr, and Miller is vice resident and gatheral manager of Sugar Cane Growwes

Spooner said he had been detached from his company part of, the 610th Engineers. He had been given command of four M-4 Sherman tanks, armed with two machine guns and a 75 millimeter gun. He had also, during the year he was in training in England, modified the tanks, waterproofing them so they could drive through the surf on the beaches of they could drive through the surf on the beaches of they could drive through them with large boildone blades to clean up ping them with large boildone. "The four tanks were leaded aboard two LCT's (Landing Craft Tanks)." Spooner said. "The LCT's had ramps on the hows that would drop down and they would land us about class tdeep in the wear and they would land us about class tdeep in the wear and they would land us about class tdeep in the wear and they would land us about class tdeep in the wear and the tank that went off just before our never got to the beach," he said. "A German shell hit it and killed everyone in it.

"A shell hit our tank too," he said. "It hit the stack but didn't go off, so we made it."

For four hours, Spooner and hit tank worked was beach, clearing obstacles and taking sould be beach, clearing obstacles and taking were so thick bringing them in you could have hoots were so thick bringing them in you could have more they walked from one to the other down the line."

About four hours after he had landed, Spooner said his tank tracks became snarled, in some cable and he and Farr wew outside pulling the cable free when another tank just beside them was hit.

lay on the beach for about three hours, unable to move.

"The tide started coming in," he said, "and I hought I was going to drown. One old boy irrthe 20th Division probably saved my life."
He was the man, a Lt. Blyth who has formerly been in his unit, detailed four men to make sure Spooner was taken abourd a landing craft to be taken to one of the hospital ships laying offshore. Meanwhile, at the time Spooner was landing on Easy Red, Miller had jumped behind German lines with the 50'th Parachute Infantry Regiment.

"If you saw the movie 'The Longest Day'." Miller said, "you might remember the outfit that lended in the village with the softh has was fred Buttons was hanging from the steeple? That was where I jumped."

Miller said the fields into which his unit jumped.

which we would miss very much if it should cease to function.

It's sort of like the old song about "You Never Miss the Water Till the Well Runs Dry". Many times we take vital organizations for granted. We don't stop.

For those who awould only which them. For those who awould only which them. For those who awould only which them working mothers. It charges a fee on a sliding scale according to what the mother earlie. Some it charges nothing at all. In reality if a sliding mother to work. They bring home a psycheck rather than collecting one than the sliding them will be seen to be sufficient to work. They bring home a psycheck rather than collecting one Right now Wee Care is about $7,000 on its annual fund drive. With another $7,000 wee Care will neath tis goal of $25,000. That $26,000 will bring in $113,000 in matching federal and state funds.

Won't you please care mongh to help so that Wee Care can care for the wee ones.

The year is almost half over-and where did it go to.

It seems like only yesterday we had the office New Year's Party. And surely three months haven't gone by since St. Patrick's day.

But it's June already and people in Belic Glade are thinking about leaving and going to the mountains. Others are trying to decide whether to close on Wechnesday afternoon or not. Wechnesday afternoon or not. We have the state of the st

B.D. Cole's new office is far from finished.

All of these construction jobs provide payrolls for the community. These payrolls make the economy more vable during the summer months than is more construction of the things. Belle Glade desperately needs to make it is more attractive place to live is a year round economy. Not only does a year-round economy help the people already here, it creates demands for new people who need new employees thereby creating new jobs.

We are slowly approaching that. Once we do I feel the growth of this town will really take off.

I wrote last weet's editorial on sower before the last complications a one.

It has become even more ludicrous. Now the gellution quagrol layer are telling the city it can't build a sewer plant in the northease section of town. Now, when you check with them they say that ian't what they meant. But when you have them repose it for you it darn sure sounds like it.

This is on top of the fact that our current plant is considered inadequate by the sewer powers that be. And the complications which must be gone through just to get one sewer connection under the current rules is assinine.

It would take a Philadelphia lawyer.

connection under the current rules is assistine.

It would take a Philadelphia lawyer to understand them and even then I'm not sure.

I think we ought to do what one local official suggested in a moment of angrer and frustration. He said we ought to get a reputable engineering firm in here to prepare the drawings for a top notich sewer plant, build the indjective omitted) plant and dare the stupid (expletive deleted) to come in and stop us. Use the police to keep them out if need be.

It may one day have to come to that.

But this one was out of the ordinary. The woman was the daughter of a prominent many-she had tried to commit suicide at least twice before an experience of the couple of the You've heard men speak of a balanced background, a balanced education, a balanced ir. They're usually referring to the fact that no important element has been ignored or neglected.

Religious sinearity is one necessity for this kind of balance. It cannot take the place of any of the other essentials, Nor can anything else take its place.

The Church is constantly helping us gain—and keep—our balance!

Ever wake up one morning feeling energetic and thinking "Well I'm going to do something really worthwhile today"? Not anything like the seemingly endless housework that's always sitting there acreaming at you, but something everyone sinvolved, (maybe almost everyone) will editor.

Last Friday I felt that way, so bout noon I grabbed my nicee and amphew and an "adopted" nephew grade Gradley Gilliam (if there's such a thing) and took off for Lion Country

Bradley Gilliam iff there's such a thing; and took off for Lion Country Safari.

Now everyone knows kids and animals get along great together right?

Not so with everyone. Sure, they loved going from cage to eage and looking at to catch a peacock, they were tried to catch a peacock.

But when the came down to hard-core, such as getting inside the cages with some of them, they backed off at first. Finally, after I had dragged them and they had dragged me all over the petting zoo looking at the other minuals and riding the train and jeep. In the midst of all this, I looked for Chad fearing that maybe the goats had mistaken him for some food and decided to eat him. Maybe they had abolished him already because I and the second of the secon and the prince the goats in at the same time.

Bless them!

All in all it was a fun day for all four of us. I did get to take some pretty good pictures but anyone who had gotten a picture of us in that pen would have had a prize winning photograph.

I'm not going to go into detail about riding through Lion Country Safari, but I do want to give a word of advice. Don't anyone think they can ride through that a small car with three Linden as the conditioner. The kink and the conditioner is a small car with the will, rewen if he is used to not weather and has a fan in the car.
